Megan Eadie
megan@weheartbccrab.ca

The BC Crab Fishermen's Association is a non-profit organization representing Dungeness crab harvesters on Canada's west coast. Harvested from the cold, clean waters off British Columbia (B.C.), Canadian Dungeness crab is renowned for its naturally sweet flavour, high meat-to-shell ratio, and firm yet delicate texture. The year-round fishery in B.C. harvests an average of 8 million kilograms annually, with the catch primarily marketed as a premium live product.

Specialty Products: Dungeness Crab

Mac's Oysters Ltd.

<https://macsoysters.com>

Gordy McLellan
gordy@macsoysters.com

Founded by Joseph and Ethel McLellan in 1947, Mac's Oysters Ltd. has remained family-owned and operated for generations. Over the years, the business has evolved from solely an oyster shucking operation to a diversified shellfish producer supplying shucked oysters, oysters for the half-shell market, and Manila clams to markets across Canada, the United States, Italy, Spain, the Netherlands, and Singapore. The company also harvests butter clams, which are primarily used as crab bait today but were previously featured in clam chowder served on BC Ferries for over a decade. Now operated by the founders' grandchildren and great-grandchildren, the family business manages approximately 400 acres of shellfish-growing areas.

Specialty Products: Clams, Oysters
